Belgian manufacturers of optical cables

Overview

We stock and supply a large range of copper and fiber optic cabling for professional markets such as audiovisual, telecom, industrial, medical, rental and many more.

Key Takeaways

Key Belgian manufacturers and distributors of fiber optic cables include Belram, B-Cables, Netconnect, Fiber Connect, and A-NET, serving professional, industrial, and telecom markets.

Leading Manufacturers and Distributors

Belram has been a major distributor in Belgium and Luxembourg since 1964, offering a wide range of fiber optic cables, connectors, adapters, and professional audiovisual and telecom solutions. They supply premium brands such as Neutrik, Belden, and Cleerline, covering applications in broadcast, industrial, medical, and networking sectors (Belram).

Cables also collaborates with global players like Prysmian Cables & Systems and maintains extensive stock for rapid delivery (B-Cables). Netconnect specializes in structured cabling for computer networks and telephony, with a strong emphasis on fiber optics. They provide installation, maintenance, and network measurement services, making them a key expert for professional fiber optic solutions (Ensun).

Fiber Connect is a startup focused on delivering high-speed internet connectivity through fiber technology, offering tailored solutions for Gigabit internet services (Ensun). A-NET provides comprehensive fiber optic services, including FTTH installation and support, ensuring high-quality outcomes for telecom and industrial applications (Ensun).

Additional Notable Companies

Other Belgian companies involved in fiber optic and cable manufacturing include Tevelec Limited, PROCAB, and Cables & Connections, which offer specialized fiber optic products, custom cabling solutions, and industrial wiring harnesses (Ensun).

Summary

Belgium hosts a robust network of fiber optic cable manufacturers and distributors, ranging from long-established companies like Belram and B-Cables to specialized providers like Netconnect and A-NET. These companies cater to professional, industrial, and telecom markets, offering both standard and custom fiber optic solutions, installation support, and compliance with international quality standards. This makes Belgium a reliable source for high-quality optical cabling solutions.
