Nepal Cable Management Frame Manufacturer

Overview

For industrial, commercial, and domestic applications, our cable trays meet international standards and ensure effective support to all varieties of electrical cabling in Nepal.

Key Takeaways

Vaishno Storage Solution Pvt. Ltd. and Bolein (via Chandra Infosoft) are leading providers of cable management frames and racks in Nepal. Vaishno Storage Solution Pvt.

Ltd. Vaishno Storage Solution specializes in industrial and commercial cable storage racks suitable for warehouses, factories, power plants, and telecom facilities. Their products are made from premium-grade steel, ensuring strength and stability for heavy-duty cable management.

They offer customized designs to meet specific client requirements, providing easy access, proper ventilation, and enhanced workplace safety. Their cable drum racks are engineered to handle bulk cables efficiently, reducing damage and improving workflow efficiency.

Bolein Cable Management Frames

Bolein, available through Chandra Infosoft, offers 19” horizontal cable management frames with 1U height and 12 ports. These frames are made from 1. 2mm steel with a powder-coated finish for durability and a polished appearance.

The removable cover panel allows for easier cable organization and maintenance. They also provide fixed shelves for 450mm depth wall mounts, suitable for IT and networking setups.

Additional Considerations

When selecting a cable management frame manufacturer in Nepal, consider: Material quality: Steel or powder-coated frames for durability. Load capacity: Ensure racks can handle the weight of cables and equipment. Customization: Ability to design racks or frames according to specific dimensions or project needs.

Application: Industrial vs. IT/networking use, as requirements differ. These manufacturers provide reliable solutions for both industrial-scale cable storage and network infrastructure management, ensuring organized, safe, and efficient cable handling in Nepal.
