Considerations

Type of Rack: Basic DIY panels are cheaper, while fully enclosed or branded racks with server compatibility cost more. Accessories: Some listings include cage nuts, bolts, or rack mount ears, which may affect the total price. Shipping: Nationwide delivery is available through Lazada, Shopee, and Carousell, with options like Lalamove, Grab, or Angkas for local delivery.

Bulk Orders: Discounts may be available for multiple units, especially on Carousell or through direct supplier negotiation. For a budget-friendly option, a DIY 1U punched rack panel starts at ₱160, while a fully equipped 1U rack server can range from ₱39,000 and above depending on specifications and brand. Checking multiple platforms like Lazada, Shopee, and BigGo can help find the best price and delivery option.
