Price range for metal cable tray installation

Overview

Get a detailed breakdown of 2024 cable tray installation costs. Learn how labor, materials, and other factors influence the final price.

Key Takeaways

The installation cost of metal cable trays typically ranges from $10 to $50 per meter, depending on material, type, and installation complexity. Cost Breakdown by MaterialSteel Cable Trays: The most common and cost-effective option, steel trays generally cost $5 to $25 per meter. They are durable and suitable for most indoor commercial and industrial applications.

Aluminum Cable Trays: Lightweight and corrosion-resistant, aluminum trays are ideal for humid or outdoor environments, with prices ranging from $6 to $30 per meter.

Hot-

Dip Galvanized Steel: Offers superior corrosion protection for outdoor or industrial settings, slightly more expensive than pre-galvanized steel. Stainless Steel Trays: Highly durable and corrosion-resistant, suitable for harsh environments, and generally at the higher end of the price spectrum.

Cost Factors

Tray Type: Ladder trays are stronger and more expensive, while wire mesh or perforated trays are lighter and cheaper. Size and Dimensions: Wider or thicker trays require more material, increasing cost. Installation Complexity: Labor costs vary depending on mounting height, supports, and accessibility.

Accessories: Connectors, brackets, and supports add to the total cost. Quantity and Bulk Orders: Large projects can reduce per-meter costs by 20–40%.

Installation Considerations

Cable trays are faster and easier to install than conduits, reducing labor costs and project time. They allow for better airflow around cables, reducing heat buildup and improving cable longevity. Expansion or future cable additions are simpler with trays compared to conduit systems.

Example PricingHot-Dip Galvanized Ladder Tray: Standard 2. 4-meter length, commonly used in commercial buildings, with prices typically around $25–$30 per meter including basic installation. Aluminum Ladder Tray: For outdoor or corrosive environments, prices can reach $30–$50 per meter depending on coating and support requirements.

In summary, metal cable tray installation costs vary widely based on material, type, and project complexity. For accurate budgeting, consider both the tray material and installation factors, and request quotations from suppliers to account for local labor rates and accessories.
