What s the best Mbps router speed for fiber optic connections

Overview

The Best Routers for Fiber Internet: My Expert Picks With the help of the Cybernews team, I spent hours researching and comparing the best internet routers.

Key Takeaways

The fastest consumer fiber optic routers currently support speeds up to 9. 7 Gbps over wired connections and over 8. 5 Gbps on Wi-Fi 7 devices.

Top Speeds and TechnologiesWi-Fi 7 routers represent the cutting edge for fiber internet, offering multi-gigabit wireless speeds and advanced features like Multi-Link Operation (MLO) and 4096-QAM modulation. For example, the ASUS RT-BE86U can achieve up to 6. 5 Gbps in real-world Wi-Fi 7 conditions and up to 9.

7 Gbps over wired 10G WAN/LAN connections when paired with compatible devices.

The NETGEA

R Nighthawk RS700S, another Wi-Fi 7 router, supports download speeds up to 10 Gbps theoretically, with multi-gigabit Ethernet ports and tri-band coverage for up to 200 devices across 3,500 sq. ft. Real-world wireless speeds for Wi-Fi 7 devices can reach over 8. 5 Gbps in close range, making it suitable for 4K/8K streaming, gaming, and AR/VR applications.

For slightly older standards, Wi-Fi 6E routers like the NETGEAR RAXE500 can handle speeds up to 5,400 Mbps, which is still sufficient for most high-bandwidth fiber plans. Wired vs Wireless PerformanceWired connections using 10G LAN/WAN ports provide the highest achievable speeds, up to 9. 7–10 Gbps, limited only by the ISP plan and connected devices.

Wireless speeds depend on distance, interference, and device compatibility.

Wi-

Fi 7 routers can deliver 8–9 Gbps close to the router, while Wi-Fi 6E routers typically max out around 5–6 Gbps under optimal conditions.

Practical Considerations

To fully utilize these speeds, your fiber plan must support multi-gigabit bandwidth. Device compatibility is crucial; older devices may not reach these maximum speeds. Tri-band routers help distribute devices efficiently, maintaining high throughput even with multiple users.

In summary, the highest Mbps fiber optic router speeds today are around 9. 7–10 Gbps wired and 8. 5+ Gbps wireless on Wi-Fi 7 routers, making them capable of handling the fastest fiber internet plans available for homes and small businesses.
