Key Takeaways

For fireproof cable trays in Ireland, top options include F. E. W.

Electrical, Niedax CMS Ireland, Excel Electric Group, and Schneider Electric Ireland, all offering high-quality fire-resistant solutions and strong technical support. Recommended WholesalersF. E.

W. Electrical (Dublin) F. E.

W. is an independent wholesaler specializing in cable management systems, including cable trays, ladders, and baskets. They supply contractors nationwide and are known for fast delivery, personalized service, and support for complex projects. Their focus on responsiveness makes them ideal for urgent or project-specific requirements, including fireproof cable tray solutions.

Niedax CM

S Ireland Part of the global Niedax Group, they provide comprehensive cable management systems for industrial, commercial, and data center projects. Their products include fire-resistant trays and fastening materials, and they offer project planning, technical advice, and on-site support. Niedax is particularly suited for large-scale or highly regulated installations requiring certified fireproof solutions.

Excel Electric Group Operating in Dublin and part of the Niedax Group, Excel Electric manufactures and distributes market-specific cable support systems, including fire-resistant trays. They offer customized solutions, project management, and compliance with UL and CSA standards, making them a strong choice for both wholesale and project-based needs. Schneider Electric Ireland (GRP Solutions) Schneider Electric provides GRP (Glass Reinforced Polymer) cable trays, which are highly resistant to fire, corrosion, UV, and temperature changes.

GR

P trays are ideal for long-term, fireproof installations in industrial or outdoor environments. Schneider Electric also offers a wide range of tray, troughing, and ladder solutions tailored to specific applications.

Additional Considerations

Material Choice: GRP trays are fireproof and corrosion-resistant, while metal trays may require additional coatings for fire protection. Compliance: Ensure the trays meet relevant standards (UL, CSA, NEMA, or local fire safety regulations). Project Support: Wholesalers like Niedax and Excel Electric provide design, planning, and installation support, which is valuable for complex or large-scale projects.

Delivery and Availability: F. E. W.

Electrical is noted for fast, nationwide delivery, which can be critical for tight project timelines. For most contractors in Ireland, F. E.

W. Electrical is ideal for responsive service and smaller projects, while Niedax CMS Ireland, Excel Electric Group, and Schneider Electric are better suited for large-scale, certified, or highly technical fireproof cable tray installations.
